No. 12

Every automobile in this town ought to go to Hardinsburg next Thursday to give the 52 men called to the help of their country a farewell that will cheer them through the entire war. No other men ever went out from their homes and firesides in a better, grander cause to fight for the best country in the world. It's a great privilege, and should be a sweet privilege, for men to have a part in saving our country from the greatest arch enemy the world has ever had to deal with.

Go over and give the boys a parting word that will stimulate them and help them on their way. May God bless our boys, and may they return to us after the war is over, decorated with a crown of glory.

CLOVERPORT AND TOBINSFERRY COMPANY

New Business Organization Started Last Week. Former Ferryman Served For Thirty-eight Years. Will Continue Carrying Mail.

The familiar little ferry boat "Katy" which has passed back and forth carrying passengers from this port to the one across the Ohio, Tobinsport, for so many years, has given away to a new transportation boat called the "C and T".

Mr. Wood Weatherholt of Tobinsport, who for thirty three years has been the ferryman, also the mail man, sold his farm including the ferry landing, to the Cloverport and Tobinsport Ferry Company.

The new ferry company began operating, Thursday Sept. 12, 1917. It is owned by Mr. Will Patz and Mr. A. C. McKaughn. The owners holding a twenty years franchise both on the Kentucky and Indiana shores.

The C and T ferry has a new barge with lock gates at each end so that automobile drivers can feel perfectly safe when they have to cross the river. The ferry will run on schedule time leaving this side every hour and the other side every half hour.

Mr. McKaughn will move to Tobinsport and live on the farm which the Company purchased.

Mr. Weatherholt will retire from active business for the present other than that of continuing to carry the mail.

Made a Canvass Over Town.

Mr. and Mrs. David Penick of Garfield, Ky., were here Wednesday and Thursday. Mrs. Penick who is a candidate for county School Superintendent was making a canvass of the town, soliciting the support of those eligible for voting in the election on November 4th.

They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Morton Penick and children, Charles Edward and Francis Marie Penick of Garfield.

An Encouraging Letter.

To the boys of Breckinridge County, that have been drafted into the national army, especially some of my old playmates of Axtel:

You are undertaking a great duty, the heart of the whole country is with you, everything you do will be watched with the deepest interest and solicitude, not only by those near and dear to you but by the whole nation. For this great war draws us all together, makes us comrades and brothers, as all true Americans felt themselves to be when we first made good our National Independence. I repeat, the eyes of all will be upon you because in some special sense you are the soldiers of freedom. Let it be your pride, therefore, to show us what good soldiers you are but also what good men you are.

Set up for yourselves a standard so high that it will be a glory to live up to it, then by living up to it add a laurel to the crown of America. May affectionate confidence go with you in every battle and in every test may God keep and guide you.

ONLY $25 MORE TO BE RAISED.

For The Illiteracy Campaign.
Total now is $186.75. Capitan Moorman Anxious to make Final Report.

Dear Editor:—The following is a list of those contributing to the illiteracy fund, not heretofore published, one or two of these names were omitted from the list by mistake. It is possible that we may have overlooked another name or two, so I will be pleased to have anyone report to me if they have been omitted from the list. As we only lack about $25.00 of having our $200.00 the assessment, and our expenses, I sincerely trust that those who have not contributed, and desire so to do, will help make up this small sum, in order that I may finally report at the earliest possible time. Very truly,

The Breckinridge Loose Leaf Warehouse Co.

INCORPORATED

Hardinsburg, Kentucky

August 28, 1917

TO OUR CUSTOMERS AND FRIENDS:

It is with pleasure that we can say after a thorough investigation of the tobacco crop condition of this county, (Breckinridge) that it has one of the best, if not the best, crop ever produced, and we are very anxious for the raisers of the same to realize the very best prices possible.

We are assured from sources that are thoroughly reliable that the prices to be paid for tobacco this year will be much more than was expected, and we hope that you will hold onto your crop until the market is established.

The farmers of this county last year lost more than $200,000.00 by selling their crop before the market was established. It was a frequent occurrence last season for the farmer to sell his tobacco, and when it was delivered the buyer would immediately place it on the market and sell it for as much again as he paid for it.

The management of this Warehouse Company has attempted in every way possible in the past to realize the best prices possible for the producers of tobacco, and our record has always shown that we have been able to do so.

We appreciate the patronage and favors shown us in the past and hope to be continued with the same, and assure the public that we will at all times do our best for your interests.

Hold on to your tobacco and get what you are entitled to for the raising of it.

We are

Yours very truly,
The Breckinridge Loose Leaf Tobacco Warehouse Co.

M. Gimbel & Sons

Wholesale Hatters and Manufacturers of Gloves

125-132 South Market Street

Chicago, Sept. 12, 1917.

TO MY FRIENDS:-

I am pleased to announce to you that I have connected myself with the firm of M. Gimbel & Sons, Chicago. This announcement gives me the greatest pleasure of my hat career.

Without overstating it, the Gimbel firm is the largest and oldest hat firm in the central market and carries a line of merchandise full of merit and worth the money, in fact, none better.

For your information I may state that they carry three main lines, viz. Felt and Straw Hats. They are one of the most prominent manufacturers of Caps and Cloth Headwear and also show a complete and full line of gloves and mittens, all of which you will find in the greatest variety, and I am sure, at prices which are as low as any reliable firm sell them. And therefore, I am sure that I am in a position better than ever before to take care of your interest and make our business relations more pleasant than ever have been.

I am here now getting out my line of samples, and in the course of a short time will call on you, (as to the exact date) will inform you later. Would thank you very much if you will wait and look over the line before you place your Spring orders, for I am anxious to start you with my new connection with a line of merchandise that is right.

Should you need anything for immediate use, I would thank you very much to send your orders direct to Chicago for they will receive most minute and prompt attention, for which purpose I shall send you under separate cover our Style Book for Fall 1917, comprising the entire line.

Assuring you of my appreciation for all favors that you have shown me, and thanking you very much for your past friendship, I remain,

Yours truly,

JOHN T. DITTO.

WILL AID SECOND LIBERTY LOAN CAMPAIGN

Washington, D. C., Sept. 11, 1917.—Fairfax Harrison, Chairman of the Railroad's War Board, authorizes the following at the request of the Treasury Department: The railroads of the United States will cooperate in the publicity campaign that is being planned for the second Liberty Loan. Colored posters advertising the new issue of Liberty Bonds will be placed in the waiting rooms of every railroad station in the country. Through these posters the Treasury Department will be able to reach the millions of persons who use the railroads and present them with timely information concerning the second Liberty Loan. The 1,750,000 employees of the railroads will also have the subject called to their attention by a series of posters that will be placed in the railroad shops and all other places where employees assemble. More than $20,000,000 worth of the first issue of Liberty Bonds were purchased by railroad employees.

Frank knows Kentucky sorghum is good and the price is no object. J. W. Webb, Garfield, went to the State Fair. Paul Whitworth accompanied him. The Girls' Canning Club, of Hardin county, has canned 45,000 cans of tomatoes this season. Got some industrious girls over there, haven't they? Tice Miller says he gave away to his neighbors tomatoes enough for 3000 cans. Kentucky will receive $252,054 from the government for good roads for the year ending 1919. The Rock Crusher, at Mystic, has closed down for repairs. A new smoke stack is one of the improvements. Frank Robbins lost $5,000 worth of hogs on his farm near Greensburg, Ind. Ground glass was found in the tankage fed to the hogs. Alien enemies are suspected of having placed the glass in the food at the factory. Kentucky will produce this year, according to the Government report for September, 32,000,000 bushels of corn in excess of last year and 2,000,000 bushels of potatoes above last year's crop. Wheat and tobacco are about the same as in 1918. Food Commissioner Hoover plans a reduction of about twenty cents in the cost of bread, and standardized loaves at five and six cents. ### OUR PAPERS ARE TRUTHFUL.

Only When Deceived, as a Rule, Do They Wander Into Mendacity. "Our papers seldom lie," Deans Taylor says so, and he should know, having been a newspaper man himself. He states: "that newspapers rarely by print statements that are not at least poor relations of the truth. "In the first place, competition among newspapers is too keen. Facts themselves are explosive enough and scatter plenty of libel suits in their wake as it is without a paper's deliberately hunting for trouble by printing fiction. "Usually when an absolute misstatement has appeared in a newspaper or the paper's chief offense is in having believed an unworthy source, a contingency difficult to guard against since any paper is more or less at the mercy of its out of town correspondents and news agencies. Any correspondent can fool any paper once, but it is to the credit of editors that an over imaginative correspondent rarely gets a second chance to exercise his talents. "After all, the principal reason why our press does not print lies is that newspaper men as a class are honest, conscientious beyond the average and, according to their code, strictly honorable. Certain things may be permitted by that code that strike the layman as peculiar, but deliberate mendacity is not one of them."—Century.

"You shouldn't have eaten so much at the party, Willie, and you wouldn't have been sick." "But, mother, how could I help it?" "Didn't you know you had eaten too much, my son?" "Yes, mother, I knew it all right, but I was too proud to admit it."—Youkers' Catalogue.

How Draft Army Will Be Called Into Service by Local Boards

Commander Will Be Chosen From Each Contingent and Will Be In Charge Until the Party Safely Arrives at Camp

Five Alternates Will Be Named From Each Registration District and Will Be Held In Case Any Fails to Show Up

OUTLINE OF REGULATIONS FOR THE CALL TO COLORS

The first 200,000 men of the national army will be sent into training on Sept. 5.

Local boards will provide lodgings and meals at mobilization points for Sept. 1.

For each registration district five alternates will be called and held until entraining time.

Appointment of a commanding officer to be made by local board.

Departure of command will be followed by roundup of stragglers by local board, which will recommend to nearest army post degree of culpability.

Physical examinations by army doctors made on arrival at camp.

THE federal government has completed its plans for the first call to the colors of men for the new national army to be formed under the selective service law.

The governors of the states have been notified that each state will be called upon to furnish one-third of its quota on Sept. 1. Each of the 4,557 local districts will be expected to furnish one-third of its quota on Sept. 1, and the men will be mobilized at training camps between Sept. 1 and 5. The rest of each district's quota will be mobilized later in September.

Regulations governing the plans for this great mobilization of 687,000 drafted men have been issued by President Wilson through the office of Brigadier General Enoch Crowder, the provost marshal general. These regulations direct the local and district boards in great detail how to proceed in designating the men to be entrained in the first call of one-third of the quota to the colors. The regulations provide for the listing of the men to be called, for the posting and notification of these called, for their assembly, lodging, subsistence, entrainment and transportation to the mobilization camps.

General Crowder will specify the number of men to be mobilized at each camp. The local boards are expected to entrain men for these camps at the times specified. The adjutant general of the states will call on the local boards to send selected men to the mobilization camps. The local boards will fix the time of assembly and order the drafted men to military duty. They also will arrange for subsistence and lodging and for the transportation of the men to the camps. They will make arrangements with hotels, restaurants and lodging houses in their neighborhoods for the lodging of the men assembled for entrainment, but the rules contain a provision by which the men may spend their last night in their homes with their families by making application to the boards.

Posting of a man's name or notice to him by mail will serve as his orders to report for military duty. Should he fail to report when posted on the list of those entrained in the assembly list he will be subject to arrest. The names of all absentees are to be reported by the local boards direct to Brigadier General Henry P. McQuinn, the adjutant general of the army at Washington. If the local board knows the whereabouts of the absentees it must call on the police to arrest them as deserters from the army and to deliver them to the nearest military station as prisoners.

The following is in part the text of the regulations for the assembling of the first section of the national army issued by Provost Marshal General Crowder:

District Boards Prepare List.

Each district board shall prepare daily a certified list in quadruplicate of persons called by each local board who have made appearance in person or otherwise in the local or district board and who have not been exempted or discharged. Each list shall contain a notation on the persons named, the reason they have been selected for military service and a direction to them to hold themselves in readiness to report for military duty at a time and place to be therein specified in a notice to be posted at the office of the local board by the local board having jurisdiction. Separate lists shall be made in respect of the persons called by each of the several local boards within the jurisdiction of the district board. One copy shall be sent to the adjutant general of the state, and three copies shall be sent to the local board having jurisdiction of the persons whose names are entered on the list.

Notification of Eligibles.

Upon receipt of the certified lists each local board shall, by mail, direct to the address shown on his registration card or filed therewith, notify each man whose name has been certified that he has been selected for military service and shall direct him to hold himself in readiness to report for military duty at a time and place to be therein specified in a notice to be posted at the office of the local board. The local board shall at the same time post one of the lists, so certified from the district board in a place accessible to the public view and shall make one copy available to the press, with a request for publication, indorsing on each of such lists the date of its posting.

Either the mailing of notice or the posting of the list containing his name as prescribed herein shall constitute the giving of notice to each of the persons named on the lists so posted and shall charge each of such persons with notice that he has been selected for military service and that he has been ordered to hold himself in readiness to report for military duty at a time and place specified in a notice to be posted in the office of the local board.

Upon notice from the provost marshal general to furnish at a specified time or times the net quota of the state or any proportion thereof the adjutant general of the state shall give timely notice to each local board in the state from which any part of the state quota is to be called to assemble for transportation to the mobilization camp to which the particular local board is to furnish men.

Boards to Assemble Men.

Upon the receipt of notice from the adjutant general of the state to assemble a specified number of selected men at a convenient point of entrainment not later than a time specified in such notice each local board shall determine the hour and place of entrainment under instructions from the adjutant general of the state. The board shall forthwith make from the names on all the lists referred to in sections 2 and 3 hereof, which have been posted by the local board as prescribed in section 2 hereof, a list of names of the exact number of men required by the adjutant general, to be furnished as prescribed in section 4 hereof.

The list shall contain an order to the selected men named therein to report to the local board for military duty at the office of the board and at an hour and date named by the local board in the notice, which named hour shall be between 8 and 5 p. m. and not more than twenty-four hours nor less than twelve hours in advance of the hour of entrainment on the date specified by the adjutant general of the state for entrainment.

The local board shall at the same time, by mail directed to the detailed addresses of the men so ordered to report to the local board for military duty, notify each man whose name is contained in the lists so posted that he is ordered to report to the local board for military duty at the time and place specified in the list so posted. From the time specified for reporting to the local board for military duty, each man in respect of whom notice to report has been posted or mailed shall be in the military service of the United States.

Subsistence and Lodging.

In ample time prior to the date upon which selected men are ordered by the local board to report for military duty the local board should make arrangements with hotels, restaurants or lodging houses in the vicinity of the office of the board for the accommodation of the number of selected men who are to be under the orders of the local board during the period preceding the hour of entrainment and who have not received permission from the local board to spend that time at home. Meal and lodging tickets will be furnished local boards for this purpose, and the arrangements should include an agreement on the part of such hotels, restaurants or lodging houses to accept, in payment for subsistence and lodging, meal tickets redeemable in cash at the office of a distributing officer of one war department.

In ample time to allow for their care and accurate preparation before the date specified by the adjutant general for entrainment each local board shall prepare the papers that must be sent to the mobilization camp.

The local board will, except on the last installment of the quota, personally notify at least five other selected men to report to the local board at the hour and on the day specified. These additional men are intended to serve as alternates in case any of the men notified fail to report as directed and in order that the local board may not be placed in the position of failing to entrain the exact number of men called for with the promptness and precision that should characterize all matters relating to the formation of the armies of the United States.

Assembly of Men.

At the time and place specified on the lists for the selected men to report for military duty the local board will itself be present and should be attended by a number of reliable assistants sufficient to perform the duties hereinafter prescribed.

Each assistant should be provided with a memorandum showing one lodging house and the precise number of men to be accommodated there. As the men report they will be checked off the list of those ordered to report and the hour at which each man reported will be noted thereon. Alternates will also be checked off on the memorandum to report and the hour at which each man reports.

As soon as the number of men to be lodged in any one house have reported the assistant who has the memorandum for that house shall note a memorandum of the names of the men as lodged to that house and shall leave a copy of the memorandum with the local board.

The shall cause the men whose names are so noted to form a line, and the local board shall instruct them by order of the provost marshal general:

First.—That they must report in person at 5:30 p. m. to the local board for retreat roll call.

Second.—That they are to report in person to the local board at a specified hour on the day of entrainment, which hour shall be fixed by the local board at least forty-five minutes before train time, plus a sufficient time to reach the railroad station from the office of the local board.

Third.—That they are now in the military service of the United States and that unpunctuality and failure to report are grave military offenses in time of war.

Fourth.—That after they have been conducted to the assigned lodging house they are at liberty until the hour of retreat roll call at 5:30 p. m., when all must be present at the office of the local board.

The assistant shall then personally conduct the group of men to the assigned lodging house and remain with them until each of them is assigned a bed and is informed about meal hours and sanitary arrangements.

He should personally inspect the accommodations furnished to insure that they are satisfactory and in complete compliance with the agreement made.

Retreat Roll Call.

At retreat roll call at 5:30 p. m. the members of the board should again be present. The roll of selected men who are to be entrained on the next day should be called from the list, and the roll of alternates should be called from the memorandum of alternates, and any absent men (not alternates) should be promptly sought out and a statement of their delinquency written and forwarded with the papers.

The board should then designate one member of the party who, in the opinion of the board, is best fitted by reason of experience, age, character and personality to be in charge of the party from that time until arrival at mobilization camp. This person will be instructed to be at the office of the local board next day before the hour specified for the rest of the party to be there.

Final Assembly.

Upon the arrival at the office of the local board of the selected men of the party and the alternates the person so placed in charge will promptly at the hour specified for assembly and under the supervision of the board cause the assembled men to form in line and will call the roll from the list and the memorandum of alternates, causing each man to answer "Here" as his name is called and to take one step forward.

Thereafter the men will be required to remain in one group except as it may be necessary to break up the group for transportation, and no man will be allowed to leave the group without permission.

The local board will caution the men that the person designated is in command of the party, that it is their military duty to obey his orders and instructions and that disobedience of orders is the most serious of all military crimes. The local board will then inspect the party to see that nothing except light hand baggage is carried.

The person designated will then, under the supervision of the board, designate a second in command, to take charge of the party during any necessary absence of himself, and will conduct the party to the railroad station.

At the railroad station the board will present a transportation request to the ticket agent and obtain the necessary number of railroad tickets for the number of men who will actually compose the party. Fifteen minutes before train time the roll will again be called from the list only. If any men are absent their names will be canceled from the list, their cards and reports of physical examination will be removed from the group of cards and reports, and the names of a sufficient number of alternates to fill the deficiency will be written, and their cards and report of physical examination will be inserted.

Duties of Commanders.

Upon arrival of the train the person designated as in charge of the party will supervise the entrainment, if necessary dividing the party into two groups, one under charge of himself and one under his assistant.

He will himself keep in his personal possession the railroad and meal tickets of the party. He will accompany the conductor through the train, identify the men of his party and furnish the necessary tickets. He will likewise make the necessary arrangements at eating places, identify the members of his party and furnish the purveyor of meals with meal tickets for meals actually furnished.

He will make frequent inspections of the cars and will take every precaution to see that no liquor is furnished to the men of his party and that none of his party is left at stops along the road.

Account of Quotas at Camps.

At each mobilization camp there will be kept an account of quotas with each local board which furnishes selected men to that mobilization camp, showing the balance of the net quota due at the end of each third of each month. Separate sheets will be kept for each state from which men are sent to the mobilization camp. Only men actually reporting and finally accepted as physically qualified for military service will be entered on the account as credited to the quota of any local board. The entries in the direct columns will be made under the date on which the list was verified back to the local board and from the totals reported on the list to the local board as accepted.

POULTRY AND EGGS

INSECT POULTRY PESTS.

Remedy For the Numerous Species of Lice That Infest Fowls.

Of the numerous species of lice in the United States seven are commonly found on chickens, four or five on pigeons, two or three each on geese and ducks, three on turkeys and several each on guinea fowl and peafowl. Lice have a flattened form and are filled with spines and peculiarly modified legs, which assist them in moving about through the feathers. Certain species which remain on the larger feathers have a very narrow elongated form, which enables them to find protection in the grooves between the barbs of the feathers. Lice are not fitted for sucking blood. They feed on portions of the feathers or on the scales in the skin, but their presence in any considerable numbers is responsible for serious injury.

The Orpington breed is of English origin and is classed as a general purpose fowl. The hens are good layers of large eggs and as table birds they rank with the American breeds. The fowl shown is a Single Comb Buff Orpington male.

The seven different species of lice found on hens are spoken of as body lice, head lice and feather lice, according to the places in which they usually are found, but since the different species intermingle to a considerable extent it is not possible to separate them absolutely on this basis. Usually three or more species are to be found on one fowl.

The head louse is undoubtedly the most injurious species to young chickens. It is a dark gray species, nearly one-tenth of an inch in length. The body louse is found on the skin of the fowl rather than on the feathers. It is rather large, straw yellow in color with some dark spots, due to food within the digestive tract. It is probably the most injurious species on grown chickens, but it also infests young fowls. The shaft louse is the species spoken of by most writers as "small body louse," a name which does not fit the habits of the species. Normally it occurs along the shaft of the feathers and does not remain on the body of the host for any length of time. It resembles the large body louse somewhat, but is smaller, rather lighter yellow in color and somewhat less spiny. Although this species is probably the most common found on chickens, it is considered of less importance.

than the large body louse, chiefly because it stays on the feathers the greater part of the time and probably feeds exclusively on the barbs of the feathers and on scales along the shaft. It is not known to occur on young chickens. The wing louse, which is closely related to the head louse, is dark gray and has an elongated body. It is more slender, however, and rather darker in color. Three other species are found more or less commonly on chickens. These are the thump louse, the large hen louse and the brown chicken louse.

Among the four species found on turkeys is the common body louse of chickens. The shaft louse of chickens also infests turkeys, but probably does not breed on that host. The other two species seem to be native to the turkey, probably existing on this fowl in the wild stage. The large turkey louse probably is most abundant. It occurs on the feathers on various parts of the body, especially on the neck and breast. The slender turkey louse is a species of good size, though rather elongated, and resembles in shape the head louse of chickens. Normally neither of these species is extensively abundant, but on crippled or unthrifty turkeys they may cause serious annoyance, and undoubtedly they are injurious to poultry.

While considerable numbers of lice are found on domestic geese and ducks, they seldom become sufficiently numerous to cause noticeable injury. Dusting the fowls with sodium fluoalid will rid them of all lice.

Swat the Rooster.

Hens without the presence of the males will lay more eggs, will be in better plumage, moult better, be better content and lay eggs that will infinitely keep better. In fact, the latter is the great reason for this campaign against the rooster, for without him eggs will be sterile or infertile. Now, infertile or sterile eggs stand heat much better—in fact, under the influence of any temperature, henhouses, depot platform, freight car en route or corner grocery. Above 90 degrees, if the egg is a fertile egg, the germ is quickened or life started. Later this dies, and there is a spoiled egg.

Milton on Books.

Books are not absolutely dead things, but do contain a progeny of life in them to be us active as that soul whose progeny they are; any, they do preserve as in a vat the purest effluence and extraction of that living intellect that bred them.

For books are as youths and virgins are; some of good, some of evil sustenance.

A good book is the precious lifeblood of a master spirit embalmed and treasured up on purpose to a life beyond life.—Milton.

Same Old Suits.

"Where have you been until this hour?" said Mrs. Lawyer Towitt to her late returning hubby.

"I've been looking after some suits," replied Towitt.

"Yes, I know those suits—the old diamonds, hearts, spades and clubs. Well, this is the last night I'll let you out."—Buffalo Express.

Right Back at Her.

"Does your husband allow you to have things charged at the stores?"

"Oh, I think he would, but—"

"But the stores wouldn't. Is that what you were going to add?"

"Oh, no. I was going to say that he gives me plenty of money with which to pay cash. Does yours?"—Buffalo Express.

Careful Buyers Read Business Man's Message

The printed announcement in this newspaper is the merchant's personal message to the readers. He tells them what bargains he has to offer. He keeps them informed as to the arrival of new goods. He shows them the way to obtain quality at a saving in price.

Careful, economical buyers watch the advertisements in The Breckinridge News and save money on their purchases. Are you one of them? Or do you buy haphazardly, merely to accommodate some one else—to help some one profit by your thoughtlessness?

Look Over the Advertisements in This Issue and see what Bargains are Offered.

ITS FOOLISH TO SUFFER

When So Many Cloverport People Are Pointing the Way Out.

You may be brave enough to stand backache or headache or dizziness. But, if in addition urination is disordered, look out! If you don't try to fix your sick kidneys, you may fall into the clutches of dangerous disease before you know it. But, if you live more carefully and help your kidneys with Doan's Kidney Pills, you can stop the pains you have and avoid future danger as well. Don't experiment—use the remedy Cloverport people are publicly endorsing. Read this case:

Lum McCoy, Cloverport, says: "Some few years ago I was badly troubled with my kidneys. For quite awhile I suffered with a lame and aching back. The kidney secretions were irregular in passage and were highly colored. I found it especially difficult and painful to bend over or try to lift anything. As I had often heard of Doan's Kidney Pills I used a few boxes which I got at Fisher's Drug Store and they cured me."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that cured Mr. McCoy. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.
